Annual General Meeting

12 members were present at the AGM held on the 13 April. Tony thanked everyone for their work during the year and for their contribution to the club. The Treasurer presented the annual financial statement for April 1st 2018 to March 31 2019. The largest expense was the annex extension which costed a little over four and half thousand dollars. Ric chaired the meeting while members elected the officer bearers. All members were re-elected unopposed with a couple of new committee members to assist with the club sales and newsletter.

Election Day Stalls

The club held a stall on both the day of the NSW and Federal elections trying to capture voters making their way to the polling booth. Sales on both days were good. Bring on more elections.

Gutter guards: Gutter guards have been installed on the clubhouse to minimise maintenance and reduce the risk of people going on the roof to clean out the gutters. Thankyou to all those that assisted in making this improvement to our workshop.

A couple of reminders

- Members are reminded to ensure that at all times whenever operating power tool and machinery there is another person present in the shed with you.
- Please ensure that paint brushes are cleaned and put away and not left sitting in the sink.

Club history: Allan Peg was the first foundation president. He placed an add in the Illawarra Mercury for men interested in forming a woodworker's group. Five turned up at his house for the first meeting in 1982. They used Allan's workshop at the back of his house. As numbers grew, they moved to the university then to Woonona School next to Corrimal and finally into the converted toilet back at Fairy Meadow Primary School.

Thankyou Ric for contacting Allan Peg to capture this bit of early history on the club.
